Port, Dessert Wines & Sherries

Sweet wines are difficult to make. The yields tend to be miniscule, but the flavours delivered are dialled up to the maximum. Their richness & indeed their sweetness means that we crave only a small drop of this pleasure, but when said drop 'drops', it is worth the wait. From the acacia honey & apricot of a classic Tokaji to the blue cheese busting styles of Port. We've got you covered.

MAN Family Syrah

£42.00

Fruity and aromatic. Liquorice, dark plums, white pepper.

Andreas Winery, 'The Lithic Whisperer', Syrah

£55.00

BOVLEI VALLEY, SOUTH AFRICA | One for history buffs out there. The name "Lithic Whisperer" comes from the discovery of stone tools, found in the vineyard soil, dating back to our prehistoric ancestors... some 250,000 years ago. Strawth. This is a classy, northern Rhone style Syrah from one of our favourite boutique wineries. Aromatic, delicate yet concentrated & long lasting. Ripe black fruits, plums, raisins, white pepper & smoky minerality. Evolves in the glass so do not be rushed. Andreas only grow Syrah, but they do it incredibly well. Superb drop.

Andreas Estate, Syrah

BOVLEI VALLEY, SOUTH AFRICA | Quite literally our very own George Bergier wrote the notes for this wine - "This Syrah is made exclusively from hand-picked grapes grown in the Bovlei Valley. Supple & refined, but bursting with fruit, the wine has matured in French oak barrels for 18 months & then benefitted from in excess of 18 months maturation in bottle. It shows firm tannins, giving it great ageing potential & pairs perfectly with casseroles, steaks, lamb, game & duck". Fabulous structure & aromatics. Red fruit, spicy, meaty & smoky tones. Concentrated & plummy with hints of freshly ground coffee. Rich & full, the palate is loaded with sour cherries, stewed prunes, pepper & smoky bacon. Smooth, plump & with great depth. Yes, we love this wine.
